The Breakers is a surviving jewel of the New York Central Railroad fortune, making a statement about the global sensibilities of the Vanderbilt family. Its interiors feature rare marble, alabaster, and gilded woods throughout.

Marble House 1892 National Historic Landmark

Created by Alva Vanderbilt and Richard Morris Hunt and inspired by the Petit Trianon at Versailles, Marble House contains 500,000 cubic feet of marble. Intended as an ultimate statement of Gilded Age privilege, only a few years later it hosted Alva’s “Votes for Women” rallies on the back lawn. Hear the words of Alva Vanderbilt, her daughter Consuelo and many more, brought to life in the award-winning audio tour.

Special Art Installation at Marble House

Nicolas Party at Marble House is a site-specific installation in which renowned artist, Nicolas Party, unites the past with the present through a selection of new works.

This installation reflects Party’s own relationship with the space, his fascination with Alva Vanderbilt Belmont (the original owner of Marble House), and his experience working with marble as a material. Party’s work is influenced by the Surrealist movement, which pairs elements generally considered “mismatched” in an attempt to draw the viewer’s attention to visual details often overlooked.

Jointly presented by The Preservation Society of Newport County ART&NEWPORT

Chinese Tea House at Marble House

Bordering the Cliff Walk and offering sweeping views of the Atlantic Ocean on one side and Marble House on the other, the Chinese Tea House is the perfect spot to relax and enjoy a beverage, snack or lunch and the view!

Available to Preservation Society members & ticket holders

Nicolas Party at Marble House
Curated by Dodie Kazanjian
The summer retreat of coal magnate Edward Berwind and his wife Herminie, The Elms was a thoroughly “modern” house in 1901. So technologically advanced for its time it appeared to work “as if by magic,” it also houses monumental art works, including wall-sized Venetian paintings, Chinese lacquer panels and tapestries.

The Elms Sunken Garden
The elaborate Classical Revival gardens on the grounds were developed between 1907-1914. At the western end of the property is the lavish sunken garden, with its colorful display of French parterre beds filled with pink begonias, blue ageratum, fine specimen trees, clipped hedges, fountains and marble pavilions.

Behind The Scenes at The Elms!

See what made The Elms run by “magic.”

The Elms Servant Life Tour
Through a guide-led tour, learn about the men and women “below stairs” who serviced the social whirl during the Gilded Age. Maintaining the elaborate lifestyle of one of Newport’s most elegant homes required the hard work of more than 40 men and women. Go behind the scenes, hear the personal stories and see photos of the butler, Ernest Birch; his wife, the cook Grace Rhodes; and one of the maids, Nellie Lynch Regoli.

You’ll see...
- Basement work areas, including kitchens, laundry room, boiler room and coal tunnel
- Third floor servant living quarters
- A rooftop view of Newport (weather permitting)

This is a true upstairs/downstairs tour. You will climb several flights of stairs.

A product of the America-China Trade and one of America’s great Victorian houses, Chateau-sur-Mer was home to three generations of the Wetmore family. You’ll see hand-carved Italian woodwork, Chinese porcelains, Egyptian and Japanese Revival stenciled wallpapers, and rare trees from as far away as Mongolia.

Built in 1841 for Georgia plantation owner George Noble Jones and rebuilt for the King family in 1881, Kingscote still possesses original rooms from each era. “Family Friendly Mansion! The ABSOLUTE BEST PART is The Breakers offers a children’s tour, which is fabulous! My niece loved hearing the “old house” talk to her and tell stories about the kids that lived there! The adults even switched over to hear the children’s version... it was entertaining to us, too!”
