The Newport Mansions Offer Free Admission on MLK Day

NEWPORT, R.I. – To celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. Day and what would have been King's 95th birthday, The Preservation Society of Newport County is offering free general admission to the Newport Mansions on Monday, January 15.

The Breakers will be open for self-guided tours 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Rosecliff will be open for self-guided tours 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The other mansions are closed for the season. Visitors are encouraged to download the Newport Mansions audio tour app to their smart device prior to arrival and bring their own earbuds or headsets.

The Preservation Society of Newport County, Rhode Island, is a nonprofit organization accredited by the American Alliance of Museums and dedicated to preserving and interpreting the area's historic architecture, landscapes, decorative arts and social history. Its 11 historic properties – seven of them National Historic Landmarks – span more than 250 years of American architectural and social development.
